

FORTRESS-MONUMENTS FOR PEACE, CULTURE, TOURISM AND INTEGRATION

PROACTIVE CONFERENCE

FOR PRESERVATION, DEVELOPMENT AND UTILISATION FOR CULTURE AND TOURISM OF COMMON CULTURAL HERITAGE: FORTIFIED HISTORIC MONUMENTS

EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY VIADRINA FRANKFURT (ODER)
Chair for Medieval History in Central Europe and Regional History of Cultures /
Master Program "Cultural Management Cultural Tourism Management" /
Master Program "European Cultural Heritage"

in cooperation with:

City of Kostrzyn nad Odra

Main Coordination Centre Baltic Fort Route in the city of Kostrzyn nad Odra

Coordination Centre Baltic Fort Route – Management Berlin

Transnational Competence and Consultation Centre "Nature Management in Monuments" at Humboldt-University Berlin

Transnational Consultation Centre "Reconstruction Technology and Monument Protection of Fortresses" at the Technical University Kaunas

Transnational Documentation & Inventory Center Fortresses at Vytautas-Magnus-University Kaunas

from June 05th through June 06th 2008

Collegium Polonicum, Slubice, Poland

COLLEGIUM POLONICUM – "SMALL AUDITORIUM"

UL. 1 MAJA (POLISH SIDE OF THE BORDER BRIDGE)

FORTRESS-MONUMENTS FOR PEACE, CULTURE, TOURISM AND INTEGRATION

JUNE 05TH 2008: HISTORIC FORTIFIED MONUMENTS IN GERMANY AND POLAND — COMMON RESPONSIBILITY AND UNIFIED STRATEGY FOR A NATIONAL AND EUROPEAN CULTURAL HERITAGE

Dimensions and identification, regional identity, state of condition, common need for action, development, practical experiences and utilization for culture and tourism.

09:30-09.40	Welcome and Opening	Moderator
09:40-10.10	Words of Greeting - Mayor Kostrzyn nad Odra - Governor of the province Lubuskie - German Monument Foundation	Dr. Andrzej Kunt Helena Hatka (inquired) Dr. Peter Schabe M.A.
10.10-10.30	Opening Lecture: The Polish-German Cultural Heritage "Historic Fortresses", its Significance on the Development of Regional Identity and Appeal, as Well as the Mission for a Polish-German Collaboration	Prof. ASP Jerzy Stiller, President Towarzystwa Przyjaciół Fortyfikacji (TPF) Poland, Posen (inquired) Dr. Matthias Schneider, President INTERFEST Germany, Saarbrücken
10:30-10.50	Fortress Kostrzyn — Victim of History, Example of a Common Responsibility and Tasks of a Transnational Collaboration	Dr. Andrzej Kunt, Kostrzyn nad Odra
10:50-11.05	Cooperation Between National and International Promoters and Prospects for International Partnership and Forms of Cooperation	Dr.-Ing. Hans-Rudolf Neumann, Coordination Centre BFR Berlin
11:05-11.30	Coffee Break
11:30-11.45	IcoFort — International Scientific Committee on Fortifications and Military Heritage	Lidia Klupsz, President ICOFORT, Warsaw
11.45-12.00	On the "What, Who and Why" of the International Fortress Council (IFC)	Carlos Scheltema, Architect, General Secretary IFC
12.00-12.15	Cultural Assets as Destinations of Tourism —Checklists for Market Success	Jana Koerner, European University Viadrina
12.15-12.45	Cultural Route "Baltic Fort Route"—Proactive Project for Transnational Cooperation in Preservation and Utilization of Fortresses as Cultural Monuments	Hartmut Röder, Coordination Centre BFR Berlin
12.45-13.00	The European Strategy on the Development of Cultural Routes in Consideration of the Culture Route "Fortresses"	Sorina Capp, Europ. Kulturrouten-Institut Luxemburg
13.00-14.00	Lunch / Press Conference	Location: Mensa
14:00-18:00	Practical experiences and exchange of experiences in parallel workgroups:
Room 15	WG I: Strategies of Transnational Cultural Routes and Development Impetuses for Fortified Monuments in Germany and Poland (lectures & discussions)	Coordinator: Hartmut Röder, Coordination Centre BFR
14.00-14.30	Poland — the Largest Fortified Open-Air Museum Under the Aspect of Culture and Tourism Development	Dr. Armin Mikos von Rohrscheidt, KulTour.PI, Posen
14.30-15.00	The "Fortresses and Fortified Cities Cultural Route"— An Opportunity to Maintain and Use Major Historic Fortresses?	Dr.-Ing. Hans-Rudolf Neumann, BFR Berlin

FORTRESS-MONUMENTS FOR PEACE, CULTURE, TOURISM AND INTEGRATION

15.00-15.30	Cooperative Development Impetuses in the Silesian—Saxon Border Region Schweidnitz/ Świdnica Glatz/Kłodzko Silberberg/Srebrna Góra Torgau Erfurt Königstein	Waldemar Skorski, Świdnica Wojciech Zimoch, Kłodzko Mgr. Ing. Marek Janikowski, Srebrna Góra Eckhart Borgmann, Torgau Karsten Grobe, Erfurt Dr. Angelika Taube, Königstein
15.30-15.45	Coffee Break
15.45-16.00	Marco Polo Systems—Strategies of Cross-Border Cooperations and Developments	Daniele Sferra, Marco Polo Systems, Venice
16.00-16.15	Cross-Border Initiatives on Both Sides of the River Odra - the example of Kostrzyn nad Odra	Agnieszka Zurawska-Tatala, Kostrzyn nad Odra
16.15-18.00	Discussion
Raum 18	WG II: Consolidation of the German-Polish Collaboration, Integration in Transnational Forms of Cooperation and Establishment of Instruments for a Unified Preservation, Development, and Utilization of Fortified Monuments for Culture and Tourism in Germany and Poland (lectures & discussions)	Coordinator: Prof. Dr.-Ing. Paul Zalewski Dr.-Ing. Hans-Rudolf Neumann, Coordination Centre BFR Berlin
14.00-14.30	Presentation of the Work in Thorn: Need for Action, Realization, and Deficits, Exemplified with World Heritage Site (working title)	Mgr Lech Narębski, curator of the City of Toruń
14.30-15.00	Fortresses in Silesia — Status Quo, Perspectives and Chances for Cooperation.	Dr.-Ing. Maciej Malachowicz, Technical University Breslau
15.00-15.30	Conservation of the Fortress Modlin — A Report on Monitoring the Fortress	Dr.-Ing. Marcin Gorski, Technical University Warsaw
15.30-16.00	Coffee Break
16.00-16.45	Need for Action and Fields of Action for Cooperation in Preservation and Development of Fortifications as Cultural Sites	Dr. habil. Frank Riesbeck, Humboldt-Universität Berlin Ingrida Veliute, University of Kaunas
16.45-17.00	Management and Sustainable Utilization of the Cultural Heritage: Baltic Fortresses.	Ramona S. Dornbusch, European University Viadrina
17.00-17.15	Potential for Settlement and Architecture in the Fortress Kaunas — Experiences and Chances for Transnational Cooperation (working title)	Prof. Dr. Kestutis Zaleckis Technical University of Kaunas
17.15-18.00	Discussion
20:00	Reception at Collegium Polonicum

FORTRESS-MONUMENTS FOR PEACE, CULTURE, TOURISM AND INTEGRATION

June 6th 2008:

SUBJECT: INITIATIVES AND ACTION PROGRAMS FOR PRESERVATION , DEVELOPMENT AND UTILIZATION OF FORTIFIED MONUMENTS FOR CULTURE AND TOURISM

Agreement on intermediate-term, multi-lateral collaboration between German and Polish stakeholders, as well as partners of the European cultural heritage

09:00-09.05	Opening
09.05-09.30	Tasks and Chances of a Foundation for Monument Protection: The German Monument Foundation	Dr. Peter Schabe M.A., German Monument Foundation
09:30-10:00	Methodology on Taking Inventory and Evaluation of a Fortified Landscape: the Examples of Cracow and Zamosc (Poland), Przemysl (Poland / Ukraine) , and Pula (Croatia)	Dr.-Ing. arch. Krzysztof Wielgus, Politechnika Kraków
10:00-11.15	Presentation and evaluation of the results in workgroup I discussion on the proposed actions, declaration of action programme	Hartmut Röder, Coordination Centre BFR Berlin
11:15-11.45	Coffee Break
11:45-13.00	Presentation and evaluation of the results in workgroup II discussion on the proposed actions, declaration of action program	Prof. Dr.-Ing. Paul Zalewski Dr.-Ing. Hans-Rudolf Neumann
13:00-13.30	Conference Summary	Ramona Dornbusch Dr. H.- R .Neumann Hartmut Röder
13:30-14:45	Lunch / Press Conference	Location: MENSA
15:00-16.30	Project preparation (simultaneously): Team 1: Meeting for preparation INTERREG-IV-Project in the Baltic region „Baltic Fort Route – Implementation 2009-2011“	Coordination: H. Röder, Coordination Centre BFR Berlin
15:00-16.30	Team 2: Meeting for preparation INTERREG-IV-B-Project in Central Europe „Forte Cultura 2009-2011“	Coordination: Dr. H.-R. Neumann, Coordination Centre BFR Berlin
16.30-17:30	Individual consultations with prospective partners	H. Röder Dr. H.-R. Neumann, Coordination Centre BFR Berlin

